

Call: +44 (0) 1483 575304

Norley Lane, Shamley Green GU5 0TP

Approached down a long gravel driveway, Barnett Farm is a beautifully restored Grade II listed period farmhouse with a superbly presented interior including exposed beams and open fires, set in extensive grounds, with a detached fully restored Bothy providing extra self contained accommodation.

The accommodation comprises drawing room with wood burning stove, family room, dining room, luxuriously fitted kitchen with Range cooker and Esse log burning stove, separate breakfast area, utility room and cloakroom.

First floor, master suite of bedroom, dressing room and en suite bathroom, guest bedroom with en suite bathroom, two further bedrooms on the first floor, family bathroom with separate shower. Second floor additional bedroom suite with dressing and study areas.

Detached Bothy with kitchenette, shower room and living accommodation.

Extensive lakeside grounds including substantial timber store room and summer house.

This property is in Council Tax Band G, with an annual charge of £3,214.85.

Price: £5,950 pcm + fees
apply

Overview

- extensive private grounds in a lakeside setting
- fully restored to a high specification throughout
- rural environment but easy access to prominent local schools

```
ID, "furnishing", true)) { echo
get_post_meta($mypost->ID,
"furnishing", true) . "
"; } if (get_post_meta($mypost->ID, "available_from", true)) {
echo "Available From: " .
get_post_meta($mypost->ID,
"available_from", true) . "
```

Call: +44 (0) 1483 575304

Available with reasonable notice.

"}?>