Abbot Road, Guildford GU1 3TA

A brand new three bedroom contemporary town house occupying an extremely convenient position in the heart of the town, a few minutes walk to the High Street, the River Wey, the main line train station and many miles of open countryside.

With views over the town to the Cathedral and with ample off-street car parking, this brand new house is situated at the bottom of Abbot Road, a highly regarded no through residential street in the heart of Guildford.

A footpath opposite the house leads into Rack's Close, a public park, which in turn leads into Quarry Street or the Castle Grounds, both providing interesting walks to the High Street, town centre and train station.

The accommodation is light and airy with an abundance of glass, engineered oak flooring with under floor heating via an air source heat pump, glass balustrades and wide sliding doors to a balcony at the front, an entertaining terrace at the rear and a Juliet balcony off the main bedroom, with lovely views over
